The Bank of America Elevate Diversity Forum provides undergraduate Black, African American, Hispanic, Latino, Alaskan Native and American Indian freshmen and sophomore students the opportunity to participate in a one and a half day emersion experience to kick start your career.

Hosted by our businesses professionals, you will have the opportunity to hear first-hand of their experience while learning about the unique culture and history of the Bank. You will have the opportunity to meet with senior leaders and industry experts, in addition to attending workshops and learning how the recruiting process works.

Program details
Dates: Wednesday, May 10 – Thursday, May 11, 2017
Location: Bank of America Office, New York
Application Deadline: Sunday, March 19 by 11:59 p.m. EST

To apply:
Complete an online application via our website at go.bofa.com/Elevate17 and submit:

- An updated resume
- A 250-word personal statement indicating what you feel has been your greatest accomplishment

Travel and hotel accommodation will be provided for students selected to attend.

Life’s better when we’re connected®

Bank of America and its affiliates consider for employment and hire qualified candidates without regard to race, religious creed, religion, color, sex, sexual orientation, genetic information, gender, gender identity, gender expression, age, national origin, ancestry, citizenship, protected veteran or disability status or any factor prohibited by law, and as such affirms in policy and practice to support and promote the concept of equal employment opportunity and affirmative action, in accordance with all applicable federal, state, provincial and municipal laws. The company also prohibits discrimination on other bases such as medical condition, marital status or any other factor that is irrelevant to the performance of our teammates. Candidates must possess authorization to work in the United States, as it is not the practice of Bank of America to sponsor individuals for work visas.

© 2017 Bank of America Corporation. | ARSS3VSL | Campus-012317
The Bank of America Emerging Women’s Program is a one and a half day insight program for freshmen and sophomore women interested in our business. This event provides a unique opportunity to meet business professionals first-hand, learn about the financial services industry, and start preparing for the application process.

As a participant you will learn about the unique culture and vast history of Bank of America, while taking part in one on one interactions with our senior leaders, and participating in skill-building workshops.

Students of all majors are encouraged to apply and learn more about our exciting industry.

Program details

Dates: Monday, May 8 - Tuesday, May 9, 2017
Location: Bank of America Office, New York
Application Deadline: Sunday, March 19 by 11:59 p.m. EST

To apply:
Complete an online application via our website at go.bofa.com/Emerging17 and submit:

- An updated resume
- A 250-word personal statement indicating what you feel has been your greatest accomplishment

Travel and hotel accommodation will be provided for students selected to attend.

Life’s better when we’re connected®

Bank of America and its affiliates consider for employment and hire qualified candidates without regard to race, religious creed, religion, color, sex, sexual orientation, genetic information, gender, gender identity, gender expression, age, national origin, ancestry, citizenship, protected veteran or disability status or any factor prohibited by law, and as such affirms in policy and practice to support and promote the concept of equal employment opportunity and affirmative action, in accordance with all applicable federal, state, provincial and municipal laws. The company also prohibits discrimination on other bases such as medical condition, marital status or any other factor that is irrelevant to the performance of our teammates. Candidates must possess authorization to work in the United States, as it is not the practice of Bank of America to sponsor individuals for work visas.

© 2017 Bank of America Corporation. | ARS53VSL | Campus-012317
The Bank of America Ignite with Tech is a one and a half day enrichment experience focused on developing your technical and leadership skills. This targeted program offers Black/African American and Hispanic/Latino, freshman and sophomore students the unique insight into how you can use your computer science and computer engineering degree to make an impact on a global scale.

You’ll have the opportunity to take part in dynamic case studies, practice your presentation skills, and enhance your business acumen through interactions with business professionals and industry experts. Our award winning technology business will showcase some of our exciting innovations, so you can experience firsthand why technology is at the heart of everything we do.

Program details
Dates: Wednesday, May 10- May 11, 2017
Location: Bank of America Office, Charlotte
Application Deadline: Sunday, March 19 by 11:59 p.m. EST

To apply:
Complete an online application via our website at go.bofa.com/IgniteTech17 and submit:

- An updated resume
- A 250-word personal statement indicating what you feel has been your greatest accomplishment

Travel and hotel accommodation will be provided for students selected to attend.

Life’s better when we’re connected®

Bank of America and its affiliates consider for employment and hire qualified candidates without regard to race, religious creed, religion, color, sex, sexual orientation, genetic information, gender, gender identity, gender expression, age, national origin, ancestry, citizenship, protected veteran or disability status or any factor prohibited by law, and as such affirms in policy and practice to support and promote the concept of equal employment opportunity and affirmative action, in accordance with all applicable federal, state, provincial and municipal laws. The company also prohibits discrimination on other bases such as medical condition, marital status or any other factor that is irrelevant to the performance of our teammates. Candidates must possess authorization to work in the United States, as it is not the practice of Bank of America to sponsor individuals for work visas.

© 2017 Bank of America Corporation. | AR553V5L | Campus-012317
The Bank of America Inspire – Women who Tech program is a one and a half day insight for freshmen and sophomore women interested in Technology. It offers a unique opportunity to learn how you can apply your computer science or computer engineering degree to make real innovations in the field of technology that impacts our customers, clients and community.

Technology is at the heart of everything we do. Given our size and scope, we offer ample opportunities to make an impact in areas that interest you the most. As an insight program participant you will learn first-hand about our culture of innovation, while building a network with our employees and leaders, and participating in skill-building workshops to help you kick start your career.

Program details

Dates: Tuesday, May 9- Wednesday, May 10, 2017
Location: Bank of America Office, Charlotte
Application Deadline: Sunday, March 19 by 11:59 p.m. EST

To apply:
Complete an online application via our website at go.bofa.com/InspireTech17 and submit:

- An updated resume
- A 250-word personal statement indicating what you feel has been your greatest accomplishment

Travel and hotel accommodation will be provided for students selected to attend.

Life’s better when we’re connected®

Bank of America and its affiliates consider for employment and hire qualified candidates without regard to race, religious creed, religion, color, sex, sexual orientation, genetic information, gender, gender identity, gender expression, age, national origin, ancestry, citizenship, protected veteran or disability status or any factor prohibited by law, and as such affirms in policy and practice to support and promote the concept of equal employment opportunity and affirmative action, in accordance with all applicable federal, state, provincial and municipal laws. The company also prohibits discrimination on other bases such as medical condition, marital status or any other factor that is irrelevant to the performance of our teammates. Candidates must possess authorization to work in the United States, as it is not the practice of Bank of America to sponsor individuals for work visas.

© 2017 Bank of America Corporation. | ARSS3VSL | Campus-012317