

TWO MASTER'S DEGREES. TWO UNIVERSITIES. TWO CONTINENTS. ONE POWERFUL HIRE.

NC State's Global Luxury and Management (GLAM) program is the only full-time luxury master's program in the Americas focusing on all three luxury sectors (personal, experiential and transportation). Through our immersive, accelerated program, students earn dual graduate degrees:

- ▶ Master of Management from NC State University
- ▶ Master of Science in Global Luxury Management from SKEMA Business School

Our graduates are prepared to make an immediate impact on your business:

- ▶ Educated in Luxury
Students earn two graduate degrees while studying in both the U.S. and Paris.
- ▶ Modern Understanding of Luxury
We focus on strategic management and digital to ready students for the industry's future.
- ▶ International Immersion
A diverse cohort ensures students gain cultural awareness and global experience.
- ▶ Real-World Engagement
Our Industry Advisory Board connects leading executives with up-and-coming students.
- ▶ Experiential Learning
Students engage in educational visits with luxury companies in New York, Champagne and the Riviera.
- ▶ Entrepreneurial Mindset
Analytical and adaptable, our graduates are poised to lead within the luxury industry.

HIRE A LEADER IN LUXURY

Global Luxury and Management students graduate with at least four months of professional luxury experience, and NC State's F-1 visa program allows international students to work in the U.S. without employer sponsorship. From internships to full-time positions, students earn real-world expertise working with luxury companies across the globe, including:

TIFFANY & CO.

Dior

L'ORÉAL

CONDÉ NAST

Club Med

MONTBLANC
