Federal Trade Commission

Bureau of Economics

Summer Internship Program: 2012

The Bureau of Economics at the US Federal Trade Commission is seeking applications for summer internships. The Bureau of Economics consists of approximately 70 economists who provide guidance and support to the agency’s antitrust and consumer protection activities.

Applicants must be US citizens, detailed-oriented, highly motivated by the Federal Trade Commission’s antitrust and/or consumer protection mission, and show an interest in economics, mathematics, or statistics. Applications from undergraduate, master’s level, and PhD students are all welcome.

Internships may be paid, subject to availability of funds.

To apply, email a resume, cover letter, and a copy of your unofficial transcript to hrmoemployment@ftc.gov by 5:00pm on Friday March 23, 2012. If you have any questions, please contact Alyina Brooks at abrooks1@ftc.gov. Incomplete applications will not be considered.