Faculty Positions in Economics

Institution: Radford University
Location: Radford, VA
Category: Faculty - Liberal Arts - Economics
Posted: 02/27/2012
Application Due: Open Until Filled
Type: Full Time

The Department of Economics of the College of Business and Economics at Radford University invites applications for two full-time special purpose positions and a tenure track position at the rank of assistant professor in Economics beginning August 10, 2012. Job descriptions are as follows:

Special Purpose Faculty Position 1:

Primary responsibilities include teaching sections of undergraduate principles of economics courses, global economy and business, and an elective course in the area of the candidate’s specialization, or stated interests in teaching industrial organization or comparative economic systems. Applicants should have an advanced degree in Economics. Ph.D. is preferred. Teaching load is four courses per semester. Commitment to superior undergraduate teaching is essential. The position is subject to annual review and reappointment.

Special Purpose Faculty Position 2:

Primary responsibilities include teaching large sections of undergraduate principles of economics courses, global economy and business and an elective course in the area of the candidate’s specialization. Applicants should have an advanced degree in Economics. Ph.D. is preferred. Teaching load is four courses per semester. Commitment to superior undergraduate teaching is essential. The position is subject to annual review and reappointment.

Tenure-Track Assistant Professor Position 3:

Primary responsibilities include teaching undergraduate and graduate courses, global economy and business and an applied course in the area of the candidate’s specialization. Applicants should have a Ph.D. in Economics or be close to completion of the degree requirements. Teaching load is three courses per semester. Commitment to superior teaching and research is required.

The College of Business and Economics is AACSB accredited and applicants need to be academically and/or professionally qualified. Rank and salary will be dependent upon qualifications.

Application materials should include letter of application, vita, transcripts (unofficial acceptable at this stage), evidence of teaching and scholarly research, a statement of teaching philosophy, and three recommendation letters.

Application materials should be submitted to econ-web@radford.edu only and queries regarding the position/s addressed to Dr. Nozar Hashemzadeh (nhashemz@radford.edu), Search Committee Chair, Economics Department, P.O. Box 6952, Radford University, Radford, VA 24142. Additional materials may be requested at a later date. Review of candidates will begin immediately, and will continue until the position is filled.

Women and minority candidates are encouraged to apply. RU is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer committed to diversity.

All new hires to Radford University will be subject to E-Verify beginning June 1, 2011. E-Verify is administered by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security, USCIS-Verification Division and the Social Security Administration and allows participating employers to electronically verify employment eligibility.

Application Information

Postal Address:  Department of Economics
Radford University
P.O. Box 6952
Radford, VA 24142

Phone:  540-831-5100
Fax:  540-831-6209
Email Address:  econ-web@radford.edu