POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

Department of Agricultural and Applied Economics
University of Georgia

POSITION: Assistant Professor/Associate Professor in Agribusiness Research/Teaching
Full Time Tenure Track, 9-Month Appointment

AVAILABLE: January 1, 2015

QUALIFICATIONS: A Ph.D. in Agribusiness, Agricultural Economics, or equivalent terminal degree with a strong emphasis in at least two major business fields (e.g. management, marketing, finance, etc.) and an interest in developing an outstanding scholarly agribusiness program. Strong theoretical and quantitative methods training with excellent oral and written communication skills are required.

JOB DESCRIPTION: This is a 60% research and 40% teaching appointment. The faculty member will be expected to teach a maximum of three classes per academic year along with advising undergraduate and graduate students. He/she will also be expected to develop a nationally renowned scholarly program in agribusiness. The desired research/teaching areas include but are not limited to agricultural management and marketing, food and fiber distribution systems, value-added agriculture, and agricultural market structure and performance. Major responsibilities will include: (1) developing a nationally recognized, industry-relevant research program with an effective outreach component (2) publishing research in major agricultural economics and agribusiness/business journals, (3) teaching undergraduate and graduate courses, (4) advising undergraduate and graduate students, (5) supporting the Masters of Agribusiness
(MAB) program, and (6) securing sufficient grants and contracts to fund graduate students.

SALARY: Competitive and commensurate with qualifications.

LOCATION: The University of Georgia, Athens, GA

GENERAL INFORMATION: The Department of Agricultural and Applied Economics is home to 28 faculty members with 350 students in programs of study at the B.S., M.A.B, M.S., and Ph.D. levels. The Department offers excellent support and opportunities for professional growth and development. The position is located on The University of Georgia campus in Athens, a city of 67,000 within a metropolitan community of 150,000. Athens is located 65 miles northeast of Atlanta. Please check http://www.uga.edu for additional information about The University of Georgia and http://www.caes.uga.edu/departments/agecon/ for the Department of Agricultural and Applied Economics.
APPLICATIONS: Please send a cover letter, vita, undergraduate and graduate transcripts, a job market paper, and arrange for three reference letters to be sent to:

Jeffrey D. Mullen, Chair, Search Committee
Department of Agricultural and Applied Economics
314 Conner Hall
The University of Georgia Athens, Georgia 30602-7509
Phone: 706-542-0767
Fax 706-542-0739
Email: jmullen@uga.edu

APPLICATION DEADLINE: To ensure full consideration for this position, all application materials and supporting documentation should be received by Monday, May 5, 2014. The review of applications will begin on May 6th and continue until a suitable candidate is identified.

The University of Georgia is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action employer. All qualified applicants will receive consideration for employment without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, disability, or protected veteran status.