Faculty Position Available

Economics – Tenure Track

The Department of Economics invites applications for one tenure track position at the Assistant or Associate Professor level beginning in September 2012. We seek applications from candidates in all fields but candidates with a concentration in the areas of macroeconomics, international economics, or money and banking are especially encouraged to apply. The typical teaching load consists of 3 courses (2 preparations) per semester in a small-class setting. Candidates should have their PhD completed or substantially completed by the time the appointment begins. The successful candidate will possess a commitment to undergraduate education and the potential for maintaining a productive research agenda.

Established in 1885, the University of St. Thomas is located in the major metropolitan area of Minneapolis-St. Paul, and is Minnesota's largest private university. Its 11,000 students pursue degrees in a wide range of liberal arts, professional, and graduate programs.

Inspired by Catholic intellectual tradition, the University of St. Thomas educates students to be morally responsible leaders who think critically, act wisely, and work skillfully to advance the common good, and seeks to develop individuals who combine career competency with cultural awareness and intellectual curiosity. The successful candidate will possess a commitment to the ideals of this mission.

The University of St. Thomas has a strong commitment to the principles of diversity and inclusion, to equal opportunity policies and practices, and to the principles and goals of affirmative action. In that spirit, the University welcomes nominations and applications from a broad and diverse applicant pool.

Qualifications: PhD in Economics required for appointment at the assistant or associate professor level. If the PhD is not completed by September 1, 2012, the initial appointment will be at the Instructor level. In order to insure full consideration, materials should be submitted by December 10, 2011.

Special Instructions: Screening interviews will be conducted at the ASSA meetings in Chicago. Applicants should submit a cover letter indicating areas of teaching and research interests, a graduate transcript, a CV, evidence of teaching effectiveness, a research sample, a one page statement of teaching philosophy and three letters of recommendation to https://jobs.stthomas.edu.
