The Department of Economics and Geography invites applications for a budget-approved, tenure-track assistant professor position, available in August, 2016. Candidates must complete all Ph.D. requirements for an Economics Major before joining the faculty. Expectations include excellence in teaching and the development of a high-quality research program. A specialization in Natural Resource/Environmental Economics is required. A secondary field in Behavioral Economics, Experimental Economics, or Economic Geography is preferred. Interested applicants must complete the one page online application at http://www.unfjobs.org and submit all required documentation. Applicants should submit electronically: a letter of interest clearly stating Ph.D. specializations, vitae, unofficial transcripts, copies of recent teaching evaluations, and the names of 3 references. Send at least 3 letters of recommendations by mail to the Chair of the Economics Search Committee.

Contact: Dr. Harriet Stranahan, Chair, Search Committee, Department of Economics and Geography, University of North Florida, 1 UNF Drive, Jacksonville, Florida 32224. Email: hstranah@unf.edu. Telephone: (904) 620-1219.

Review of applications will begin on November 30, 2015. UNF is an equal opportunity/equal access/affirmative action employer.
