Full Text of JOE Listing:
The Department of Economics at Colorado State University invites applications for a full-time, tenure-track Assistant Professor position in Political Economy. The successful candidate shall teach graduate and undergraduate courses in political economy, and conduct research that contributes to the Department's tradition of methodological and intellectual pluralism. Supporting the Department's other graduate fields (including development, environmental, international, public, and regional) or core courses is desirable. An interest in obtaining external funding is encouraged. Ph.D. must be completed by the time the appointment begins on 16 August 2015. Tenure requires both scholarly accomplishment and excellence in teaching. Reflecting departmental and institutional values, candidates are expected to have the ability to advance the Department's commitment to diversity and inclusion.

To assure full consideration, application materials must be received by Friday 28 November 2014; however, applications will be accepted until the position is filled. This is an open search: once the search committee identifies semi-finalists, departmental tenured and tenure-track faculty will have access to those files. References may be contacted at the finalist stage.

CONTACT: Please submit a cover letter describing your suitability for the position, CV, statements of research and teaching interests, job market paper and three confidential letters of recommendation. Applications must be submitted electronically to http://www.aeaweb.org/joe/. Colorado State is an EO/EA/AA employer. Colorado State University conducts background checks on all final candidates.
