Deloitte FanTAXtic Competition 2016

What is it? The Deloitte FanTAXtic Competition provides an opportunity for students from some of the nation’s top accounting and tax programs to gain real-world experience through participation in a unique interscholastic competition.

Do I qualify? Each team must consist of at least 2 sophomores, 2 junior(s)/senior(s), and no more than 1 graduate student. Eligible students must either be enrolled in or have completed an accounting class(es) and must be full time students. Graduate students must currently be enrolled in a master’s degree program in accounting or tax. No student with more than 12 months relevant work experience (excluding internships) is eligible to participate. Current Deloitte employees and interns are not eligible to participate. Students who have accepted employment with Deloitte, with a start date after January 15, 2017, are eligible to participate.

Where/When: ALL TEAMS must register by September 30, 2016. No registrations accepted AFTER October 5th.

Mid-October - All teams will receive the case via email. Each team will be have a Deloitte Advisor who will answer basic questions, but will not offer specific guidance related to the solution. All teams will present a PowerPoint (proposed solution) to judges (who represent the majority shareholders of a client).

November 11 (Friday) - 6:30-9:00pm: Kickoff Dinner and reception

November 12 (Saturday) - All teams will engage in a case simulation exercise with Deloitte professionals. Each team will have a finite period of time to prepare for a 14 minute presentation, followed by a 5-7 minute Q & A from the judging panel. The top team in each “region” will advance to the National Competition.

January 13-15, 2017 - The top teams (the first place team from each region) will advance to the National Competition which will be held at Deloitte University — outside of Dallas, TX.

What is in it for you?

Students will gain practical problem-solving, research, and presentation experience, and be able to network with accounting professionals.

Monetary awards are provided as follows: National first place team - $2,000 per student; National second place team $1,000 per student; National third place team - $500 per student; All other National participants - $200 per student

Second place team from each of the regions receives $200 per student.

In addition, all students who attend the Regional FanTAXtic Competition will receive a gift certificate for their participation in the program.
