

M120: Professional Development and Career Planning Course

Overview

M120 is a one-hour elective course designed to prepare students for their professional career. Guest employer speakers present career strategies on topics such as networking, interviewing, preparing for your internship/job, managing your performance and much more!

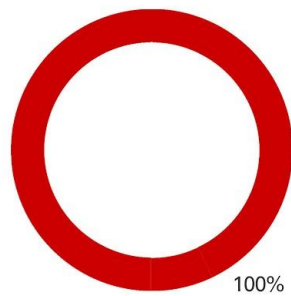

As a result of the class...

Are you more comfortable with networking?

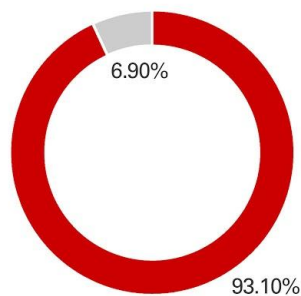

■ Yes ■ No

Are you more confident in conducting informational interviews?

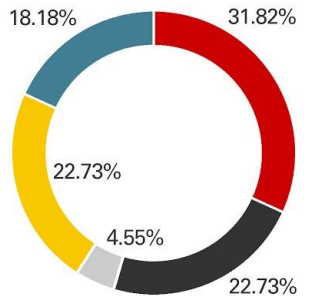

■ Yes ■ No

Are you likely to recommend M120 to a fellow student?

■ Yes ■ No

Have you secured an internship?

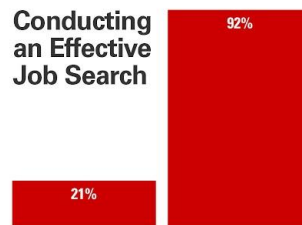

■ Yes ■ No ■ In final rounds ■ Still interviewing ■ Still applying

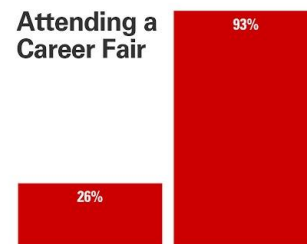

Data is pulled from Fall 2018, Spring 2019, Fall 2019, Spring 2020, and Fall 2020

Pre vs Post-Assessment Preparedness

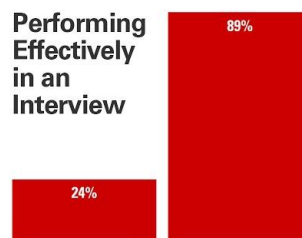

Conducting an Effective Job Search

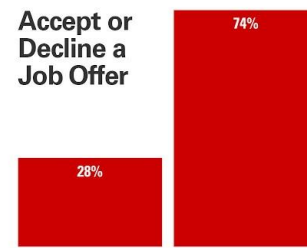

Attending a Career Fair

Performing Effectively in an Interview

Accept or Decline a Job Offer

Student Testimonies

"I am confident in saying that this class has been and will be the most beneficial and useful class that I will take at NC State."

"I feel prepared to be a senior next year. I am confident in my resume, cover letter, LinkedIn, and interview skills because of this class. I am also more prepared on how to be professional and efficient when I enter my full-time position."

93% of students after taking M120 felt confident in writing an effective resume

82% of students after taking M120 felt confident in succeeding in an internship or full-time job

85% of students after taking M120 utilized career resources offered by Poole College of Management